I was done with my shower (my hair was wet and I had NO CLOTHES ON) the police was called on me. I had no idea why and they said they called because there was banging in my apartment. They asked if there was someone else there in my apartment I answered "No" which there wasn't, I was being compliant to their request (there was no search warrant for them to search my apartment) they proceeded to look in my apartment for I am not sure what and they did not ask to enter. (They had no reason to enter my apartment anyways) regardless I was not trying to hide anything (at this time I was still wearing a towel a pink one around my waist) and the officers Ignacio Estrada #11004 and Joshua Bishop #10803 came in and demanded me to get dressed after being completely naked from a getting out the shower (they could have had a female officer watch me or at least let me close my room door) so I had no choice but to get dress right in front of men and they arrested me in MY APARTMENT with no real reason let alone evidence of me doing anything. They didn't even bother to tell me my rights and why I was getting detained. They stated why I was being detained after we almost got to the police station which was for disturbing the peace. I never felt so disgusted and disrespected let alone violated by police officers watching me get dressed to arresting me (I never been arrested before) for something I didn't do, I was in my own apartment having my own peace not anywhere outside let alone making obnoxious noises. They believed a lie my neighbor framed upon me instead of investigating the whole event. The District Attorney also dropped the charges on March 26, 2024.

They didn't even state when I was getting arrested what I was getting arrested for until they started driving to the police station. Nor did they say my rights. While being at the police station, I was treated like a criminal for no reason I was denied basic human rights of having a phone call to my mom and they said that I would be out before the day ended. I was in that cell for 11 hours and was let out by 11pm. For something I didn't do they had no evidence they just went off the fact of what somebody else said. But they had evidence of me being in my apartment and being wet from getting out of the shower showing MY innocence towards the claim. When we got to the police station I started having a panic attack because everything I have and love is being taken from me. They denied me my phone call no matter what happened or how much I asked. I at least asked every hour to call my mom. When I got out my mom told me she called the police station and she said they said I should have been out before 11pm. That day I was suppose to take my sick son to the hospital because he has a bad fever. During the event of my arrest my mom was on the phone with me (she is my witness) and she was on the phone with me 10 mins before I stepped into the shower.

The police officers Estrada and Bishop completely discriminated me and didn't take the fact that I have anxiety and PTSD and depression seriously. I feel like my justice for my sanity, and my safety will never be held with concern when I have to get help from the Hemet police. I felt like an animal... Worse than an animal... That least animals get treated better towards abuse. I was treated like nothing instead of at least looking at everything first. After this I do not want to be around anyone but my family because I am tired of people lying on me and abusing vulnerability. I should be valued as a human being who has a voice like everyone else. Thanks to all this trauma I have to get therapy for constant stress, panic attacks, PTSD and I'm paranoid to be alone or walk outside and go through the process of getting the arrest cleared off my name for future employment opportunities. Along with this I also have a damaged right wrist.

Another experience I suffered with officer Estrada misconduct is him detaining me when the ambulance was suppose to medically clear me from an attempt over dose call that my husband called for (it was a mistake call he didn't know about one of my medications). My husband clearly saw them detain me in handcuffs and place me in the back of the police car. The ambulance was supposed to medically clear me not the police. This officer is a trainee and clearly needs to be trained more. And officer Bishop needs to be held accountable for his and Estrada misconduct. I have on recording of officer bishop saying I got arrested because the neighbors wanted me arrested not because I actually did something.

Evidence I have to prove my lawsuit is multiple videos that was recorded on my phone of the officer's misconduct and even after the incident I have on recording them being cocky and ignorant towards me saying "my neighbors wanted me arrest" that's why I got arrested, I have my arrest report with the body camera footage serial number of them sexually harassing me and doing the police misconduct, I was also on the phone with my mom; she's is my witness, and I have a letter from Riverside District Attorney dismissing my charges for lack of evidence. Along with this the officer who initiated this assault was a trainee who is no longer with the department for failing his training.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

CM-010

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.

(SIGNATURE OF PLAINTIFF OR ATTORNEY)

I was done with my shower (my hair was wet and I had NO CLOTHES ON) the police was called on me. I had no idea why and they said they called because there was banging in my apartment. They asked if there was someone else there in my apartment I answered "No" which there wasn't, I was being compliant to their request (there was no search warrant for them to search my apartment) they proceeded to look in my apartment for I am not sure what and they did not ask to enter. (They had no reason to enter my apartment anyways) regardless I was not trying to hide anything (at this time I was still wearing a towel a pink one around my waist) and the officers Ignacio Estrada #11004 and Joshua Bishop #10803 came in and demanded me to get dressed after being completely naked from a getting out the shower (they could have had a female officer watch me or at least let me close my room door) so I had no choice but to get dress right in front of men and they arrested me in MY APARTMENT with no real reason let alone evidence of me doing anything. They didn't even bother to tell me my rights and why I was getting detained. They stated why I was being detained after we almost got to the police station which was for disturbing the peace. I never felt so disgusted and disrespected let alone violated by police officers watching me get dressed to arresting me (I never been arrested before) for something I didn't do, I was in my own apartment having my own peace not anywhere outside let alone making obnoxious noises. They believed a lie my neighbor framed upon me instead of investigating the whole event. The District Attorney also dropped the charges on March 26, 2024.

They didn't even state when I was getting arrested what I was getting arrested for until they started driving to the police station. Nor did they say my rights. While being at the police station, I was treated like a criminal for no reason I was denied basic human rights of having a phone call to my mom and they said that I would be out before the day ended. I was in that cell for 11 hours and was let out by 11pm. For something I didn't do they had no evidence they just went off the fact of what somebody else said. But they had evidence of me being in my apartment and being wet from getting out of the shower showing MY innocence towards the claim. When we got to the police station I started having a panic attack because everything I have and love is being taken from me. They denied me my phone call no matter what happened or how much I asked. I at least asked every hour to call my mom. When I got out my mom told me she called the police station and she said they said I should have been out before 11pm. That day I was suppose to take my sick son to the hospital because he has a bad fever. During the event of my arrest my mom was on the phone with me (she is my witness) and she was on the phone with me 10 mins before I stepped into the shower.

The police officers Estrada and Bishop completely discriminated me and didn't take the fact that I have anxiety and PTSD and depression seriously. I feel like my justice for my sanity, and my safety will never be held with concerned when I have to get help from the Hemet police. I felt like an animal... Worse than an animal... That least animals get treated better towards abuse. I was treated like nothing instead of at least looking at everything first. After this I do not want to be around anyone but my family because I am tired of people lying on me and abusing vulnerability. I should be valued as a human being who has a voice like everyone else. Thanks to all this trauma I have to get therapy for constant stress, panic attacks, PTSD and I'm paranoid to be alone or walk outside and go through the process of getting the arrest cleared off my name for future employment opportunities. Along with this I also have a damaged right wrist.

Another experience I suffered with officer Estrada misconduct is him detaining me when the ambulance was suppose to medically clear me from an attempt over dose call that my husband called for (it was a mistake call he didn't know about one of my medications). My husband clearly saw them detain me in handcuffs and place me in the back of the police car. The ambulance was supposed to medically clear me not the police. This officer is a trainee and clearly needs to be trained more. And officer Bishop needs to be held accountable for his and Estrada misconduct. I have on recording of officer bishop saying I got arrested because the neighbors wanted me arrested not because I actually did something.

Evidence I have to prove my lawsuit is multiple videos that was recorded on my phone of the officer's misconduct and even after the incident I have on recording them being cocky and ignorant towards me saying "my neighbors wanted me arrest" that's why I got arrested, I have my arrest report with the body camera footage serial number of them sexually harassing me and doing the police misconduct, I was also on the phone with my mom; she's is my witness, and I have a letter from Riverside District Attorney dismissing my charges for lack of evidence. Along with this the officer who initiated this assault was a trainee who is no longer with the department for failing his training.
